

ARTEMIS

powerful natural remedies

To our valued customer,

Welcome to 2011! I hope the festive season was safe & enjoyable, and you managed to spend some quality time with friends and family.

I spent some time in beautiful Central Otago harvesting our St John's Wort for the ARTEMIS Stress Relief Tea and the ARTEMIS Nerve & Skin Rescue Oil. The potency & purity of the herbs we can gather here in NZ never fails to amaze me. What a wonderful country we live in!

Returning to work, however, after enjoying the festive season, our bodies benefit from an opportunity to detox after indulging. The ARTEMIS Liver Detox Tea followed by the ARTEMIS Kidney Cleanse Tea makes an ideal, healthy, cost-effective way for you to detox. A mild detox that I personally do every day is one cup of ARTEMIS Liver Detox Tea before breakfast, followed by a cup of ARTEMIS Kidney Cleanse Tea at morning tea. This provides an 'internal shower' flushing away the toxins that we are exposed to everyday in modern life. It leaves me feeling less sluggish, I have more energy and my skin is pure & glowing. (I receive comments ALL the time about my skin.)

Give it a go for a great start to 2011!

Wishing you good health & happiness.
